

I would be very upset to see k-love replaced by an lpfm broadcaster providing other programming in my area, as this station is one of the few I can let my children listen without fear of what they will hear. This station provides a happy and upbeat program that appeals to all ages. Thank you for your time.